

Zoh Hieronimus
WCBM Talk Radio Host
Presented with "Patriot of the Year" Award

WCBM Talk Show Host Zoh Hieronimus, known for telling next year's news today, was awarded the Patriot of the Year Award by an independent group of her fans honoring her at a luncheon in Carney, April 5, 1997.

The House of Delegates Resolved: "Be it hereby known to all that The House of Delegates of Maryland offers its sincerest congratulations to Zoh Hieronimus in recognition of the work you perform for the good of Maryland, resulting in your being named Patriot of the Year,"

Former Idaho Congressman George Hansen saluted Zoh by noting: "A few leagues south of Independence Hall the Spirit of Liberty rings out mightily to all who will hear -- the fearless and principled voice of Zoh Hieronimus on The Zoh Show."

Republican Candidate for Governor, Ellen Sauerbrey wrote to Zoh: "Your listeners get excited and interested in being a part of the political process, which has had a profound effect on legislation in this state. Lawmakers listen to their voters, so thank God the voters are listening to you... We are fortunate to have such a principled and honest journalist in this community to bring forth the truth and provide hope for a better future for Maryland."

Delegate Martha S. Klima wrote to Zoh: "We, your listening audience, know how committed you are in your defense and protection of our constitutional rights.... Your outrage at the foolishness and arrogance that is entwined throughout the news and in published materials, no matter what the personal criticism and risk... keeping listeners informed and trying to get individuals concerned with what is happening both in Maryland and nationally puts you in the forefront of heroines/heroes that are protecting our freedoms!"

Delegate Nancy Jacobs called Zoh "The single most effective commentatoress, talk show hostess, freedom fightress and protectress of Constitutional rights that the City of Baltimore has ever had... Your battles with bills and resolutions and laws as they intrude on our daily lives to make us mere servants of the states are legendary."

Save-A-Patriot Fellowship presented Zoh with a certificate which "recognizes, honors and applauds Zohara Hieronimus for her leadership and courage as a lone voice in the shadow of the Capitol of a powerful and tyrannical oligarchy, standing in the gap facing fear, apathy, and the skepticism of her colleagues and contemporaries for the cause of liberty."

The above quotes and the listener appreciation award and luncheon show that more and more citizens are finding their voice and defining their vote on Talk Radio, and especially on The Zoh Show on AM 680 WCBM
